Location, location, location. Breathtaking views, bright & cheery, "pride of ownership" are just a few ways to describe this home. Shell beach is known for its ambiance, charming homes, and peaceful neighborhood with locals walking their pooches. 365 Placentia is situated just one house from the ocean. It is obvious as to the quality of style and care. A beautiful open floor plan, high ceilings, canned lighting, plantation shutters, hard wood & tile flooring, granite counter tops, surround sound, dual pane windows and more. View the ocean from the living, dining, kitchen & master bedroom not to mention from decks on the 2nd level and the roof top. The roof top deck gives panoramic views and includes an outdoor kitchen, high end spa, outdoor shower and plenty of room to enjoy panoramic views from the morning sunrises to the evening sunsets. The entry level has 2 spacious bedrooms with glass doors leading out to small patios. Each room has a view of a water feature from which you can hear the soothing sounds of water as it cascades down a rock formation. A full master bath, inside laundry and a small office is also on this level.
